WHAT'S ON
BATHURST REGION
JULY

BATHURST WINTER FESTIVAL

Bathurst Winter Festival's, a Cosmic Paradise - A place of great happiness. A Significant event in our community space of great delight and happiness. The Bathurst Winter Festival, a winter wonderland exactly as you would like it to be.

Here is where the stars align for an out of this world experience. Layer up and head full throttle into the Winter Playground and watch buildings of Bathurst come alive through space, colour and music.

Projections will fly across Court House walls, change the colour of plants in the Fernery and alter the ground you walk on through Machattie Park. Get competitive using your iPhone or Android and fly clouds through the virtual sky scoring points to win daily prizes along Court House Lane.

Walk down the yellow brick road, past clouds and through rainbows to discover an enchanted forest in Machattie Park. Lights, sound and colour provide the backdrop to keep your insta story game strong.

On Saturday night, 6 & 13 July from 12pm to 9pm, the park will be packed with craft beer, mulled wine and gourmet eats. Entertainers will roam and keep you warm with humour, talent and test your sense of reality. Carnival rides will move you through space, down slides and have you bumping into others on your voyage through the festival.

Step into a realm of immersive experiences in the freedom of Regional NSW

STARSTRUCK: AUSTRALIAN MOVIE PORTRAITS

If you love movies, you'll love Starstruck! This exhibition reveals never-before-seen stories of Australian cinema and explores how cinema portraiture can create a bridge between the magic of a movie's fictional world's and the realities of filmmaking. Through photographic portraits, candid behind-the-scenes shots, rare film posters, casting books and original costumes, Starstruck celebrates 100 years of Australian cinema including watershed moments, iconic visions of Australian life, and a glimpse into the experiences of actors and crew.

A National Film and Sound Archive of Australia and National Portrait Gallery exhibition supported by the National Collecting Institutions Touring and Outreach Program

PETER SOLNESS: LAMPLIGHT

In 2016 Peter Solness participated in the Hill End Artists in Residence Program. Captivated by the history and inhabitants of this remote gold mining town, Solness has continued to return to Hill End to produce a series of 'light photographs' of the artists who live there, and the ghosts of its past.
