

An Ode to Mothers

You are a deliberate creation of God!
The excellent handiwork of an excellent God!
Unique!

Standing in the call of God on your life,
Your beauty excels and transcends
the physical.
An inner glow making you distinct and radiant.

Though times may change many things;
The warmth that your love brings,
is never changed.

Thoughts of you are memories old,
Yet ever new.
For treasured deep within my heart,
Are those in which you've been a part.

And so dear mother,
I send these loving thoughts your way.

May the sun shine on all your dreams.
May the birds sing to your heart's tune.
May a long and blessed life be your reward,
And may God keep you safely in His hand.
