STATEMENT

Syracuse, New York – The Syracuse Regional Airport Authority (SRAA) – operator of Syracuse Hancock International Airport (SYR) - has released the following statement regarding the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Temporary Flight Restriction (TFR) over Syracuse today, Saturday, February 4, 2023.

A Temporary Flight Restriction is in effect at SYR from 10:15 am to 2:30 pm. Air and ground traffic will be briefly impacted at times during this window. Travelers should monitor the airport's Twitter account (@SyracuseAirport) for updates. The airport's Twitter feed is also available on our website at FlySyracuse.com.

Travelers should confirm any impacts to their flight(s) directly with their airline.
