Family, friends say goodbye to owner of El Fiesta Ballroom

Cindy Aguirre-Herrera

(Seguin) – Many of those in the music and entertainment industry are joining the Seguin community today as it says goodbye to Johnny “Mr. T” Trevino.

Trevino who over the years has become synonymous with the El Fiesta Ballroom died last week after losing a long battle to Parkinson’s Disease. Over the past 45 years, Trevino along with his wife Janie, have owned and operated the local dance hall on Interstate 10.

Throughout that time, the El Fiesta has hosted hundreds if not thousands of celebrities, comedians, wrestlers, and musicians all featuring various genres. Thanks to Trevino’s vision, the ballroom has also become a mecca especially for those in the Tejano music industry. In between the concerts and dances, the El Fiesta has also continued to operate as a reception hall, bingo hall, and even as a restaurant, hosting the location for The Lunch Box.

Daughter Lydia Trevino-Ruiz says the El Fiesta has always been her father’s dream.

“That’s what we want people to remember is he believed in education. He helped causes that promoted education and he was always there to sponsor sports teams for kids. He just did so much for so many people in the community and I think the biggest legacy that he could leave is that he loved the Fiesta Ballroom,” said Lydia.

El Fiesta Ballroom Owners Johnny and Janie Trevino pose for this photo taken by KWED and the Seguin Daily News. The photo was in celebration of the El Fiesta’s 40th anniversary. This week, the community mourns the passing of Johnny, paying tribute to his accomplishments in running the local dance hall and community venue.

“He loved what it represented in the community, and he loved all the lives that it touched. So many people have been leaving messages, ‘oh, we got married there. Oh, I met my husband there.’ Forty-five years of events for a family so we literally shared in families’ lives.”

She says her father took pride in operating the El Fiesta – something she says made people come back again and again.

“I think it was that when they got here, they felt welcomed. They felt part of the family – (it wasn’t) just come and play and thank you and goodbye. You got to know us. You got to know my dad. My dad was known for always walking around, making sure that everybody was behaving, not causing any trouble, making sure everybody was safe so that’s why people came back over and over and since, we are a music venue and not a night club, you could bring family. You didn’t have to be 21 years and older to enter and he always wanted to keep it that way. He was adamant, ‘no, this is a family place. Families are welcome and we are not changing.’ Yes, you can make more money doing all those better things but that’s not what he was about,” said Lydia.

Lydia says her father was a humble man who always quietly but passionately helped others follow their own dreams. She says he was the person who they will always remember as helping them getting that one foot in the door and that’s by offering them the stage at the El Fiesta.

She says it was his personality and character that always made others feel at home such as in the family’s story told about the late Selena Quintanilla.

“We talked to Mr. (Abraham) Quintanilla, Selena’s father, because she played here when she was 9-years-old. She came and played here and throughout the years and so when we talked to Mr. Quintanilla, he was saying how sorry he was and he appreciated all of the support that we gave her from the very beginning and the last time, she performed here which was in December and the next year, she got murdered. She was in the office at the end of the evening, and we were talking, and she runs in – no make-up, in sweats and she runs in and she says ‘dad, we are taking off to San Antonio. So, her and her husband and her sister and her husband were going back to San Antonio because they were staying at the Riverwalk. She says we are going ahead and leaving, and my dad says ‘wait a minute, let me shake your hand. You are never going to play here again.’ And all she said was “Why Mr. T? Why am I not going to play here again? Are you kicking me out?” And he said, ‘no, because you are going to be a big star, so I want to shake your hand.’ And she said, ‘oh no, Mr. T don’t worry. I will be back. I’m not going to forget where I came from,’” said Lydia.

Among the other celebrities sending their heartfelt condolences to the Trevino family is Tejano sensation Little Joe of Little Joe Y La Familia. Joe says he will never forget Trevino’s friendship.

“Johnny Trevino built the Fiesta Ballroom in Seguin, Texas, one of the most popular ballrooms in Texas. We share a lot of history and I’d like to share some of it with you. The Fiesta Ballroom opened in February in 1976. I was given the honor to perform for the grand opening on Easter Sunday, April 1976. It was the first public event 45 years ago. My last performance at Fiesta Ballroom was October 2019 for my birthday and that was the last time I saw my friend Johnny Trevino. Rest in peace my amigo and enjoy the fiesta in heaven,” said Little Joe.

Now while most will remember Trevino for his success in the entertainment industry, his daughters say they will miss him for being the family man that he was and for all the good wisdom he instilled in them. Lydia says her father was simply the best.

“He would make us laugh and play practical jokes on us. He was a lot of fun and he never judged anybody. He would always tell us ‘Be kind to everybody you meet and you’ll get it back tenfold’ which we are,” said Lydia.

On top of being a good father, Lydia says Trevino was an even better husband.

“They were always kissing, kissing, kissing and the thing that struck me, is as sick as he was on his death bed, the minute my mom walked in, he opened his eyes and reached out to kiss her and I was like ‘oh, my God, he is still thinking of my mom.”

The funeral for Trevino will be held today at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. Trevino also leaves behind daughters, Barbara Trevino-Kuvet; Cynthia Trevino-Rangel; Betty Trevino-Barry and Lisa Trevino-Rudny.

Trevino was 82.

WIEHE

Donna Miller Wiehe was born January 22, 1930 in Ft. Worth, Texas. Donna's mother, Ottney Lee Weir, was married to Gaither Miller, who adopted Donna at an early age. They made their home in the Texas oil fields in Crane County. Gaither worked drilling oil wells for Cities Service Oil Company. Her mother worked many years as a county clerk and later in the school tax office. Donna studied piano with Lady Faye Galloway and oboe and percussion with Jacques Nance and Jim Nevins. She attended the Texas Tech band camps in Lubbock for three summers while in junior high and high school.

In 1947, Donna earned a music scholarship to North Texas State University (now UNT). Donna's college degrees were Bachelor of Music Education and Master of Music Education. Later she earned a second Master of Education concentrating in special education. Donna was certified to teach all levels of music in band, choir and orchestra. While at NTSU, Donna played oboe in the band and orchestra. During football season, she played snare drum in a previously all-male drum line under the direction of Professor Maurice McAdow. She also played oboe with the Wichita Falls Symphony. After graduating Donna taught music in the Highland Park schools in Dallas.

Doug and Donna were married in 1951 and moved to Beeville, Texas where Doug accepted a position teaching JH/HS band. Donna taught elementary music and played English Horn with the Corpus Christi Symphony.

After Beeville, Donna and Doug taught in Big Spring ISD for nine years. She also played oboe with the Midland / Odessa Symphony.

When Doug was hired as a professor/band director at NTSU Donna taught junior high English, choir and orchestra in the Denton ISD schools. While Donna was Congress Junior High's orchestra director and Lida Beasley was Congress Junior High's band director they earned UIL first divisions. This made them the first female duo to do so at this school. Also, while in Denton, Donna typed over thirty theses and dissertations at NTSU and Texas Women's University to support her family while Douglas completed his PhD residency at the University of Oklahoma.

In 1971, Douglas and Donna moved to San Marcos where Douglas was the director of bands at Southwest Texas State University (now Texas State). Donna taught music and special education in the San Marcos public schools.

In 1974, Doug was hired as Fine Arts Supervisor for the Brazosport Independent School District. Donna taught special education, band, and elementary music. She also accompanied hundreds of students for UIL solo and ensemble competitions. Additionally, Donna was active as an oboist with the Brazosport Symphony of which she was a founding member in 1982.

After retiring from the public schools, Doug and Donna moved to Seguin, Texas. While in Seguin, they performed for three years with the San Antonio Concert Band (later called The Heart of Texas Concert Band) under the direction of Dr. Mark Rogers. During this time Donna also worked with the children's choir at Hillcrest Church and taught several students private piano and percussion.

Donna's first son, Stephen Douglas was born in Beeville and now lives in Pflugerville with his wife Sue. After moving to Big Spring their second son, Donald Kirk was born and now lives in Houston with his wife Beth. Five years later Angela was born and now lives in Austin with her husband Mark.

Donna is survived by her three children, five grandchildren, Kristen, Clay, Josh, Kelsey (Brent) and Morgan (Colton) and one great grandson Brodie ("the one who made her great").

Donna is preceded in death by her husband Dr. Douglas Wiehe and by her parents Gaither Miller, Ottney Lee Miller and Doyle Riddle.

A private family graveside service and interment will be held on Saturday, July 17, 2021 at Guadalupe Valley Memorial Park in New Braunfels, Texas.

You are invited to sign the guestbook and view Donna's pictorial life celebration at www.treshewell.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Tres Hewell Mortuary, 165 Tor Dr., Seguin, Texas, 78155, 830-549-5912.

BOUQUET

Words will never be enough, but we figured we would give it a go nevertheless. Theron Elton "Rocky" Bouquet was so many things to so many people. He passed away June 4th, 2021 of Covid19 complications after a fierce battle. He is survived by his wife, parents, four children, younger sister and brother, nieces and nephews, grand nieces and nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles. He was a fighter through and through, and was the embodiment of, "You can't keep a good man down." He consistently chose to live life on the bright side, and prioritized loved ones above all else. A military brat, he traveled all over the world, making friends and gathering jokes in Spain, Japan, and throughout the United States. From a young age, he got involved in music however he could, whether that was replaying a favorite record and practicing a guitar lick until it was perfect (getting on the nerves of his siblings) or even joining FFA in order for his band to play in the talent show. His competitive nature flourished in sports, and he quickly grew a passion for football and wrestling. He was also an avid Boy Scout throughout his life, continuing his love for the great outdoors as a helper to other Scouts, including his son. Later in life he continued his family legacy and became a Free Mason. He touched the lives of many, and found joy in guiding others. He played an active role in helping others along the way, creating opportunities however he was able, and was a mentor to anyone in need. He had his Bachelor's degree in Business minoring in Political Science, during and after which he worked at Motorola/Continental plants for 16 years, many of which he was a Supervisor. He then transitioned to be a School Bus Driver for Navarro ISD for more than 10 years. He believed in investing in our future, and providing pathways to education. He embarked on many business ventures with his beloved family, including the famed music store Stage Door Music, a tasty donut trailer, and 2 Car Washes. He also pursued his passion of music, running sound boards for bands and dance recitals for 25+ years. He had many bands of his own throughout his life, including two bands with his wife and soul mate Melanie Warfield Bouquet. Later on, they sold their car wash to build their homestead out in the country. Rocky was working on building a house for the second time in his life, to spend the Golden Years with his family in. He was a forever student, continuously studying and learning new ways to run their future farm. He was a bee whisperer, a gardener, a builder, a joker, a fixer, a protector, a tinkerer, an avid reader, a rock star: He played his music in the sun. His laughter and guitar solos will forever be in our hearts. He was a selfless people person who, despite fighting his own battles, kept a smile on his face and would "keep on keeping on". Floods, a fire, tornado, hurricane, ANCA Vasculitis (autoimmune disease), and Colon Cancer couldn't shake his inspirational optimism. Rest easy Rocky, you will be so missed by your loving family and friends. Save us a spot on the rock.

A Celebration of Life will be held at the Texas Theatre July 10th, from 2-5pm. The family extends an invitation to come share stories about our Rockstar. Memorial contributions can be sent to venmo @Melanie-Bouquet. You are invited to sign the guest book at www.treshewell.com. Arrangements are under the direction of Tres Hewell Mortuary, 165 Tor Dr., Seguin, Texas, 78155, 830-549-5912.
