SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

COUNTS 1 - 6
(Mail Fraud)

Background

At all times material to this Indictment:

1. Central Illinois Orthopedic Surgery ("CIOS"), located in Bloomington, Illinois, provided surgical orthopedic services, physical therapy, and sports medicine services.
2. CIOS was owned by two licensed physicians, identified herein as Victim A and Victim B.
3. In approximately 2008, Defendant AARON J. ROSSI ("ROSSI") worked as an extern at CIOS.

4. In or around July 2012, ROSSI earned a medical degree from a medical school in Barbados.

5. After obtaining the medical degree, ROSSI did not complete either a medical residency or fellowship. As a result, ROSSI was not eligible to be licensed as a physician in the State of Illinois.

6. In or around late 2012, ROSSI was hired by CIOS to assist with administrative duties. Shortly thereafter, ROSSI became the CIOS office manager. Over time, ROSSI assumed greater administrative responsibilities at CIOS, including responsibilities involving CIOS finances, financial accounts, and credit cards.

7. ROSSI also worked as a "surgical assistant" at CIOS. As a surgical assistant, ROSSI could only work under the direct supervision of a licensed physician.

8. On or about March 15, 2018, ROSSI was terminated by CIOS.

Scheme to Defraud

9. Beginning at least as early as December 2014 and continuing until in or about March 2018, in McLean County, Illinois, in the Central District of Illinois, and elsewhere, defendant herein, did knowingly engage and attempt to engage in a scheme and artifice to defraud CIOS, Victim A, Victim B, and others and to obtain money and property by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises.

AARON J. ROSSI,

10. It was a part of the scheme that ROSSI portrayed himself as a physician and allowed others to falsely believe that he was a physician licensed to practice medicine. In truth and fact, as he well knew, ROSSI was not licensed to practice medicine in the State of Illinois and had been directed by the State of Illinois Department of Professional Regulation to cease and desist from making that false representation.

11. It was further a part of the scheme that ROSSI abused his role and administrative responsibilities at CIOS for his personal benefit and gain.

12. It was further a part of the scheme that ROSSI moved the CIOS bank account from Commerce Bank to Chase Bank and changed the accountants CIOS used.

13. It was further a part of the scheme that, unbeknownst to Victim A and Victim B, ROSSI used CIOS credit cards and funds for his personal use and benefit. This included the purchase of an audio-visual system for his home, the lease of a private jet, car repairs, various personal items, and payments made on his personal credit card.

14. It was further a part of the scheme that ROSSI made and caused to be made false and misleading entries into the books and records of CIOS to conceal the true nature of ROSSI's purchases and expenditures.

15. As a result of the scheme and artifice to defraud, AARON J. ROSSI defrauded CIOS, Victim A, Victim B, and others of more than $1,000,000.

Mailings

16. On or about the below-listed dates, in McLean County, in the Central District of Illinois and elsewhere,

AARON J. ROSSI,

Defendant herein, for the purpose of executing and attempting to execute the above-described scheme and artifice to defraud, did knowingly order products from Amazon, an online retailer, and caused those below described products to be delivered by mail and by private commercial interstate carrier, according to the directions thereon, to his residence in McLean County, Illinois:
