RULES 2022

- Bathurst Regional Council, Bathurst RSL Club, Devro, Reliance Bank, 2bs 95.1 FM and 99.3 B-Rock FM, jointly sponsor the Bathurst Junior Sport Awards.
- The awards are open to all Bathurst youngsters (18 years and under) who either attend local schools or are members of a Bathurst amateur sporting association.
- The aim of the awards is to acknowledge outstanding local youngsters from the Bathurst district and assist with their expenses as they represent New South Wales in National events (ie: Australian Championships) or Australia in International events. As a general rule, invitation carnivals or events and honorary / merit team selections are ineligible. In special circumstances, consideration will be given to extend the awards to include other events, ie: Regional representation in International events, etc.
- Nominations should be lodged on this Official Application Form as soon as possible prior to the event, preferably, no less than 3 weeks so as to allow on-air promotion of the forthcoming event. Please provide all the information requested. A club official or teacher must authorise and sign nominations.
- Following approval of the application, a cheque for $500 will be drawn. Where the total number of applicants exceeds six for any National or International junior sporting event, a team award of $2500 will replace the individual awards. A maximum of 3 awards may be applied for in each financial year.
- The awards do not extend to club officials, coaches or teaching staff. However if the person is a junior, awards may be considered for referees for National/International events.
- Nominations should be made by the Bathurst school or sporting association which represents the nominated junior sportsperson: ie School teams - CHS, CCC, ISA, CIS, should be nominated through their local Bathurst school and all association teams N.S.W., Country, Australia, etc. through the appropriate local Bathurst junior sporting association. Please also supply the selection letter or advice from the State or National Sporting body.
- Awards will not be sent direct to the recipient. Arrangements will be made for the presentation to be made by one of the sponsors. We would ask that Awards Sponsors be acknowledged.
- Completed applications should be forwarded to 2bs/B-Rock, PO Box 310, Bathurst NSW 2795 along with the Selection document that confirms State or National representation.
